As primary multi academy Trust serving the Diocese of Lichfield, St Chad's Academies Trust is transforming the futures of young children in our Church of England academies.

The Trust which formed in 2014 comprises of 20 (first, middle and primary) academies, and is recognised by our DfE partners as the largest primary MAT in the West Midlands.

Are you looking for an exciting new opportunity to further develop your professional development and broaden your vocational knowledge base and offer, whilst improving the life chances of young people through strategic management and system leadership?

As the Executive Principal of St. John's and St. Peter's the successful candidate will join an energetic, dynamic and resourceful, professional group of Principals within the Trust, as well as academy colleagues all driving the Trust's vision, 'Children First'. All Principals, within the Trust, provide peer to peer support, working collaboratively within Communities of Practice and are continually striving to enhance their professional career through new challenges and opportunities whilst always having the children at the forefront of their thinking.

As a Trust we are committed to work/life balance, continual personal development opportunities and health and wellbeing. A full and considered tailored induction programme is in place to ensure your employment starts productively, welcoming you to the family. We embrace a proactive and innovative business approach promoting a breadth of experience and knowledge within the education sector, which continually adds capacity and value to our systems.

We welcome and encourage informal discussions about the role expectations of this post so if you are interested and wish to discuss the position further, please contact our CEO, Sue Wedgwood, email: sue.wedgwood@stchads.uk (07837 757649). Visits to the academy are encouraged.
