SEND Information Report

School's Offer

What are special educational needs and disabilities?	A child or young person has SEND if they have a learning difficulty or disability which calls for special educational provision to be made for him or her. The SEN Code of Practice states a child has special educational needs when they “have a significantly greater difficulty in learning than the majority of others of the same age” and/or “have a disability which prevents or hinders him or her from making use of facilities of a kind generally provided for others of the same age in mainstream schools” There are 4 broad areas of SEND: <ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ Communication and Interaction (including Autistic Spectrum Condition and related conditions).➤ Cognition and Learning (range of learning difficulties including dyslexia and dyslexic tendencies).➤ Social Emotional and Mental Health difficulties. (Including ADHD)➤ Sensory and/or Physical difficulties (includes disabled pupils and those with hearing and visual difficulties). Many children do not broadly fit into one of these categories but may have needs in more than one. Looked After Children or children with English as an additional language (EAL) are not children with SEND based on this alone. However, looked after children and EAL children can have SEND.
How does St. Peter's Primary Academy know if children need extra help?	At St Peter's C of E Primary Academy, early identification of Special Educational Needs and Disabilities is key so that we can ensure that the right support is in place for all children to reach their potential. We know that a child needs extra help when, despite receiving high quality teaching: <ul style="list-style-type: none">➤ They are making less than-expected progress given their age and individual circumstances➤ Their progress is slower than that of their peers➤ There is a gap between the child's attainment and that of their peers➤ The gap in attainment widens over time, despite additional support being put in place

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ They require additional adult support to access the curriculum ➤ They require additional resources to support their learning Concerns may also be raised from parents/carers or previous settings attended – e.g. previous school or early years setting. If after making reasonable adjustments the class teacher still has concerns, a referral will be made to the SENCo.
What should I do if I think my child has Special Educational Needs?	Speak to your child’s teacher about any concerns. There are always members of staff on the playground at the beginning/end of a school day. You can also make a more formal appointment to see your child’s teacher by contacting the school office or sending them a message on Class Dojo. Concerns can also be raised at termly Parent’s Evenings. Once you have spoken to your child’s teacher, the SENCo (Miss Hiley) may become involved. Miss Hiley can meet jointly with parents and teachers to discuss any concerns and to help plan any additional support for your child, as well as facilitating referrals to outside agencies, if required. Miss Hiley can be also be contacted directly on Class Dojo. All parents will be listened to. Their views and their aspirations for their child will be central to the assessment and provision that is provided by the school.
How will St Peter’s C of E Primary Academy teach and support my child?	All children at St Peter’s have access to a broad and balanced curriculum. St Peter’s is an inclusive school and we make reasonable adjustments to support the varying needs of all our pupils. Some of the ways we do this are listed below: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Identifying any barriers to learning and taking steps to remove these. ➤ Providing additional adult support in class to scaffold, model and break down tasks into chunks to make the curriculum accessible to all ➤ Following the advice and guidance from outside professional agencies as to strategies to use and equipment to purchase ➤ Including children in evidence-based intervention programs to work on specific targets on a one-to-one basis, or as part of a small group ➤ Monitoring and reviewing the impact of all the adjustments listed above before planning further intervention and support Staff supporting children who are placed on the SEND register will work together to create a PFP (Plan for Progress) <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ A Plan for Progress (PFP) is used to set targets and aid planning and preparation: It is a working document. ➤ The PFP is shared with all staff working with the child and support is put in place. ➤ The PFP is reviewed 3 times a year with child and parents. The PFP will be reviewed mid-cycle if needed.

	For a minority of children, when SEND support is not enough and where they meet County criteria, school and/or parents may make an application for an EHCP (Education, Health, Care, Plan). This will involve on-going involvement of external specialists resulting in a detailed assessment of the child's strengths and needs.
How will the curriculum and learning environment be matched to my child's needs?	At St Peter's C of E Primary Academy, all children have access to a broad, balanced curriculum. Teachers plan to incorporate the needs of all children in their class through adaptive teaching and the effective use of teaching assistants where present. Teachers and teaching assistants model examples, break down instructions into smaller chunks and make explicit links between new teaching and prior learning. Children will be provided with specialist equipment and resources whenever this is required. These resources may include coloured overlays to aid reading, a pencil grip and writing slope, visual checklists and a visual timetable, a fidget toy or a wobble cushion. Some children may take part in intervention groups to address gaps in their learning, or to support other areas of need, such as Speech, Language and Communication needs, Social, Emotional and Mental Health needs, Sensory and Physical needs. How are St Peter's C of E Primary School's resources allocated and matched to children's Special Educational Needs?	All teachers are teachers of children with SEND and are trained to enable them to meet the variety of needs of pupils in their class through Quality First Teaching. They put additional support into place within their own class by deploying their teaching assistant (if applicable) or providing additional support themselves as part of high quality teaching. Teaching assistants also deliver evidence-based interventions to individual pupils or small groups during the afternoons and the impact of these interventions is measured by the SENCo. A range of resources and equipment are provided, such as table prompts for literacy and maths, physical support like pencil grips, writing slopes and emotional resources such as social stories. Where children have a higher level of need school may, in conjunction with parents apply for an Education, Health and Care plan, guided by county criteria. When a child is identified as having additional needs, we use a graduated response to support and identify the additional support a child may require. Parents will be involved in all discussions and kept up to date with how their child is being supported. The Graduated Response <ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Monitoring - a teacher has recognised a child may have certain needs and additional interventions and reasonable adjustments may be offered. These children have a Plan for progress (PFP) with specific targets and all additional support and reasonable adjustments that they require are listed on it. These plans are reviewed on a termly basis by teachers and parents or carers. ➤ Pupils with an EHCP- children who have been identified as having complex and significant needs and may be in the process of an
